FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL REALTOR EARNS NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Kathleen “Kathy” Kane, a member of Hudson Gateway Association of REALTORS®, was recently awarded the prestigious GRI designation by the New York State REALTOR® Institute. Kane was awarded the designation after completing over 90 hours of classroom instruction and examinations meeting the rigorous standards established by the National Association of REALTORS®.

The REALTOR® institute of New York, which is conducted by the New York State Association of REALTORS®, was developed to satisfy the need for a more comprehensive and effective learning experience in various phases of real estate. By taking classes offered by the Institute a REALTOR® can become a more competent professional, render broader and more effective service, and elevate the standards of the real estate industry.

In addition to earning the GRI designation Kane has also received the following designations: CIREC Commercial and Investment Real Estate Certification, BPOR (Brokers Price Opinion Resource), ABR (Accredited Buyers Representative), and SFR (Short Sale and Foreclosure Resource). Kane, currently an Associate Broker with Coldwell Banker in White Plains, along with her business partner Joan Spota, an Associate Broker with Coldwell banker In Yorktown Heights, act as principals for a property management company West Put Home Services, LLC.
